

Scotland: St. Andrew's Day True or False?

1. There are more people than sheep in Scotland.
2. Edinburgh has always been the capital of Scotland.
3. Skara Brae is on the island of Orkney.
4. The Roman Empire never conquered Scotland.
5. Some people in Scotland still speak Pictish today.
6. The 'Scottii' actually came from England.
7. William Wallace was the King of Scotland.
8. Scotland was the first country in the world where everybody could read.
9. Adam Smith invented the Steam Engine.
10. Scotland tried to make a colony in Asia.
11. Robert Burns did not drink alcohol.
12. Glasgow was famous for building cars.
13. The Scottish Parliament opened in 1999.
14. Celtic is the Catholic team in Glasgow.

Scotland: St. Andrew's Day True or False? Teacher's Notes

1. There are more people than sheep in Scotland (False)
2. Edinburgh has always been the capital of Scotland. (False, Perth was the capital before Edinburgh)
3. Skara Brae is on the island of Orkney. (True)
4. The Roman Empire never conquered Scotland (True)

PHOTOCOPIABLE

Opracowanie: Neal Stewart

www.naukabezgranic.pl

5. Some people in Scotland still speak Pictish today. (False, noone knows what the language looked or sounded like)
6. The 'Scottii' actually came from England (False, they came from Ireland)
7. William Wallace was the King of Scotland (False, he was captured before he was crowned)
8. Scotland was the first country in the world where everybody could read. (True)
9. Adam Smith invented the Steam Engine. (False, it was James Watt)
10. Scotland tried to make a colony in Asia (False, it was in Central America)
11. Robert Burns did not drink alcohol. (False)
12. Glasgow was famous for building cars. (False, it was famous for building ships)
13. The Scottish Parliament opened in 1999. (True)
14. Celtic is the Catholic team in Glasgow. (True).

PHOTOCOPIABLE

Opracowanie: Neal Stewart

www.naukabezgranic.pl