

British Manners and Etiquette

Post-session Comprehension

Questions

1. What two things should you do when meeting someone?
    -
    -

  2. What should you do when meeting the Queen if you are a...
    - man?
    - Woman?

  3. What is the best way to practice good posture (standing up straight)?
-
4. What are two topics of conversation that you should avoid at a dinner party?
    -
    -

  5. True or false? You should say “sorry” if...
    - you knock into somebody.
    - somebody knocks into you.
    - you breathe too loudly.
    - you want to ask somebody a question.
    - you want somebody to repeat what they said.

  6. Cutting the tip from a piece of brie is known as...
    - “decapitating the brie”
    - “nosing the brie”
    - “tipping the brie”

  7. Draw a picture of a table place below, with the items in the correct place.

Allow that: I dont like that idea Bare: Very/a lot of Blad: Friend/bro Chat: Talk Clock:
See Chirpse: Talk (on the phone)/flirt Doe: Though Ent : Am/is/are/have not
Fit: Attractive Gash: Rubbish/not good Jack: Steal My ends: My neighbourhood
Spit: Rap Vexed: Angry Wasteman: Useless person